Wildcatters Wednesday Luncheon

11:30 a.m., Wednesday, April 5
Tulsa Country Club
701 N. Union Avenue, Tulsa

Featuring

EnergyNet, Inc., President

Chris Atherton

Chris Atherton is the president of EnergyNet, Inc. EnergyNet is an oil and gas asset acquisition and divestiture firm specializing in auction sales, sealed bid transactions and government lease sales.

Atherton has been part of the EnergyNet team since 2002. He has been actively involved as the firm has completed over $2.75 billion in transactions including sell-side mandates from thousands of exploration and production clients.

Atherton leads a multi-disciplinary team of 30 professionals specializing in land, technical, business development, marketing, IT and administration.

Atherton has 16 years of experience in the energy industry. He graduated from Texas State in San Marcos with a business management and marketing degree. Prior to EnergyNet, he worked at the Enron Corporation for a number of years until they politely asked him to pack up his belongings and vacate the building.

He currently serves as the chairman for the Houston Wildcatters Host Committee for the Texas Energy Alliance. He served as the chairman for the SPE-Gulf Coast Section Business Development Study Group and is an active member of the IPAA, ADAM Houston, ADAM Permian and Houston Producer's Forum. He holds series 39, 22 and 63 SEC licenses.
